

Do you want to serve? Already committed to a full-time job? Already vested into your retirement? What about being a reserve officer?

The Wheatland County Sheriff's Office is now accepting applications for reserve deputy. Reserve deputies are volunteers that assist sworn law enforcement officers on critical incidents, prisoner transports, major holiday/public events, and many other tasks. As a reserve deputy, you will receive all uniforms, equipment, and training from the Wheatland County Sheriff's Office. If hired, you will attend state-required training, both online and in person. You will even get a vehicle for any trainings that require travel. You can obtain a MT Peace Officer Standards & Training (POST) Application from the Wheatland County Sheriff's Office, or by calling the office and requesting a copy. Come join our team, make a difference, and help your community!
